

BASTROP INDEPENDENT CHRISTIAN CO-OP

HANDBOOK

Dearest BICC Families:

Under the umbrella of BCHA, BICC (Bastrop Independent Christian Co-op) was formed nearly twenty years ago to provide an opportunity for our home-educated students to receive specialized instruction in a variety of courses. We are a group of like-minded Jesus-followers who want our children to grow in the Lord as they are educated in more academic areas. We are not a school, but rather something much richer; we are a cooperative learning center. It is by team effort we succeed.

Please prayerfully consider your goals for this upcoming school year, how you can lend your talents, and how BICC can be a tool for your family.

In His Service and Yours,

BCHA Board Members

PARENTS AND STUDENTS: Please familiarize yourself with the entire BICC Handbook. You can use it as a reference as well.

TEXAS HOMESCHOOLING LAW

In Texas, homeschools are considered to be private schools. To legally homeschool, you will need to follow these requirements:

Teach the required subjects.

The required subjects are: math, reading, spelling and grammar, and a course in good citizenship. Although science and history are not required by state law, any college your student applies to will require them for admittance, so you'll want to make sure to teach those too.

Use a written curriculum.

The private school law as interpreted by the Texas Supreme Court requires that you use some form of written curriculum (online programs meet this requirement) and that you operate your homeschool in a "bona fide" manner.

EXPECTATIONS

In addition to the BCHA statement of faith, all BICC teachers will abide by the following.

- The teacher shall...
 - Cooperate with the Board in implementing all policies, procedures, Biblical principles, and directives governing the operation of BCHA-BICC.

- Leave political biases out of any information presented, and when presenting material that may be controversial, though not unBiblical, present both sides of an issue.
- Supervise students in their charge and clearly communicate with classroom helpers in how they may assist you.
- Help students learn attitudes, skills, and subject matter that will contribute to their development as mature, able, and responsible Christians to the praise and glory of God.

BICC MEMBERSHIP

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

- Be a member of BCHA.
- Read the BICC Handbook and agree to abide by the contents therein.
- Complete a BICC application, and submit the $50 non-refundable application fee.
- Interview with the BCHA-BICC Board. (Returning members will need to do this every three years.)
- If you are accepted:
 - Fill out the Class Registration.
 - Pay monthly Co-op fees ($20 for the first child and $10 for each additional child with a cap of $50/family).
 - Pay any extra fees for classes like music and cooking as appropriate.
 - Purchase or borrow required texts and materials for classes.

COSTS

- BICC Application: A $50.00 non-refundable registration fee is due with your application. This fee helps cover building rental, curriculum, supplies, repair and replacement of church or Co-op property, reimbursing teachers for class supplies (which then become BICC property), additional insurance costs, etc.
- Insurance: All attending members will be covered by BCHA liability insurance while on campus. Insurance per participating person(s), including parents, is included in the tuition and is not a separate fee.
- Monthly Co-op Tuition:
 - Due the last Friday of the month prior to classes.
 - December's tuition is a full payment. (If you continue for the entire year, December's payment will also cover May. Families who join during the second semester will still have a May payment.)
 - A late tuition fee of $5 will be assessed separately for tuition, unless prior arrangements were made with the Co-op Treasurer.
 - $20 for 1st student; $10 for students thereafter, with a cap of $50 per family
 - $20 per student schooling with Co-op members during the week:
 - Students may attend with another family for no more than one school year.
 - Parents must sign a Liability Waiver in order for their student(s) to attend without them present.

- Students will be on a six weeks probationary period to decide whether or not they may continue to attend with another family.
 - After two issues with the student, either disciplinary or medical, the ability to attend with another family will be discontinued for those students.
 - A maximum of three families per school year will be able to utilize this program, this includes, but is not limited to students for whom the attending parent is their babysitter.
- Curriculum and Fees:
 - Some classes will have a curriculum that the student is expected to purchase. We try to keep these costs as minimal as possible. If there is a special circumstance where you cannot purchase the materials right away, contact the Board. However, if you are not willing to purchase the materials for the class, please do not sign up for that class. (All of our teachers are expected to obey copyright laws.)
 - Some classes may have a small fee associated with them for supplies. These are payable directly to the teacher. (Teachers, please discuss any fees with the Board before assessing them.)
 - Music lessons are provided some years at an extra monthly fee, paid directly to the music teacher. The cost of these classes will always be dependent upon the number of students who sign up for music classes. ($40+/- per month).

REGISTRATION

- Early registration for the next school year begins around Spring Break for all current BCHA members. Early registration closes after April 30.
- Open registration for new families will begin May 1.
- Completed applications will be accepted on a first come, first served basis. Interviews will then be scheduled with the Board on that basis. All families desiring to participate in BICC the following year must be interviewed.
 - An application is not complete until all paperwork, except the class choice list, is completed and returned and any dues are paid.
- Once Co-op is at capacity, members, meaning those with completed paperwork and paid BCHA dues, may join the waitlist, provided they have gone through the interview process.
 - Waitlisted members need to provide the first half of the $50 BICC dues to secure their spot. This will go toward their BICC dues once they are admitted to co-op.
 - Waitlisted members will be asked to join the Co-op as space becomes available on a first come, first served basis, depending on ages of the members' kids and room capacity at co-op.
 - If waitlisted members are not admitted during the year, they will be allowed to register first during open enrollment, which is after the current co-op members register.
- Class registration, once all classes are available, will also be on a first come, first served basis for all accepted BICC members, with a possible waitlist for highly desired classes.

- Only families who also have a student in first grade or above may utilize the Nursery, Preschool 2s & 3s, or Kindergarten 4s & 5s classes. If you're looking for ideas on home educating little ones, our Preschool Director would be happy to assist you.
 - Children are not ready for first grade at our Co-op until they are at least 5 years old by September 1 AND able to SIT in a classroom setting for at least 40 minutes at a time.

Upper level teachers are strongly encouraged to give regular and consistent feedback regarding a student's progress in class. For academic classes, the issuing of grades is preferred. students during lunchtime, unless a tutoring session has been announced for a particular class during lunchtime.

PLEDGES

- The Lord's Prayer: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

INTERNET USAGE

- The Internet is being provided by the church and should only be used for activities that promote learning and are God-honoring.

- The bandwidth is limited. Please limit any video streaming or large file transfer to learning activities for Co-op. Excessive use of the internet may prevent others from getting access.
- The internet will not be used to:
